Program Assistant III – Admissions and Financial Aid

Position: 12 Month w/ Benefits; Pay Grade 3; Non-Classified Employee; Non-Exempt Status

Location: Moorefield Main Campus

Overview: This position serves as the main point of contact for students and parents in the Student Services department by performing clerical, administrative, and customer service support functions. This position assists the Student Services departmental staff in duties such as, but not limited to, scheduling appointments, processing student loan information, verifying data, providing general information about the financial aid and admissions process to students and parents, composing reports and correspondence for review and signature, maintaining follow-up records and reviewing admissions applications. This position reports to the Dean of Student Access and Success.

Salary Range: $25,600 - $28,000, commensurate with experience

Responsibilities:

- Serves as a primary point of direct administrative contact and liaison with other offices, students, parents, and external institutions and agencies and assists in the scheduling of all appointments.
- General office duties such as answering phone, taking messages, filing, making copies or other duties as directed. Answers inquiries about the admissions and financial aid processes and gathers and provides information to the public, staff, students and administrators.
- Assists in the development and implementation of office procedures. Organizes and manages files, documents, records and statements in an orderly fashion. Manages, reviews and verifies all data entry entering and exiting the Learner Support Services department.
- Assists students and parents with completion of the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) and other state and institutional forms as well as the preparation of reports for specific financial aid programs to ensure on time completion of projects.
- Assists, supports and coordinates with other LSS staff in their activities including, but not limited to, reconciliations, verifications, tracking new applications, completing necessary forms for outside aid sources (Division of Rehabilitation, etc.).
- Assists in verifying the accuracy of documents and consistency of data from federal tax returns, financial aid verification documents, and admissions and student information and performs data analysis to identify discrepancies and determines action for resolution. Requests additional information for incomplete or inconsistent applications.
- Sorts, organizes and allocates all financial aid and admissions data submitted for entering into the BANNER database as well as assists in resolving data entry issues and protocols. Assists in the management of the financial aid file management process.
- Assists in the collection and/or review of financial aid applications to determine completeness and eligibility for financial aid based on regulations and applicable laws. Participates in the planning and organization of the awarding process to ensure compliance, to maintain quality control of data (manual and automated), and to provide for accurate and timely processing of applications.
